

Cook County Airport Authority Receives OneGeorgia Grant

The Cook County Airport Authority is the recipient of a $488,700 OneGeorgia Equity grant to construct a new 4,248 square foot terminal at the Cook County airport in Adel, Georgia. The total project cost is $2,692,288 and will include hangars and fuel farm improvements. The Cook County Airport is a level II facility with a 5,001 ft runway located 1/2 mile of I-75 at exit 39. Construction on the new terminal will be completed by fall 2011.